A big happy Mother's Day to all the mums involved in the club. If it wasn't for you we would not have a club. Thank you for being there when it is cold and wet. When we lose and when we win.

Thank you for driving us to the games and training. Thanks for helping manage and coach our teams. Also thanks for serving in the canteen. Thanks for the hugs after I have been tackled really hard.

Happy Mother's Day.

TEAM OF THE WEEK- Under 10's

Match Report 4/5/2013

This year started with half a new team as we graduated to the full size field. Some players have had no formal soccer before joining and school social soccer was largely their introduction.

We continue to develop important skills at training and try to make them into consistent skills during the game.

Drawing our match 1 - 1 against higher placed St Bernadette's on Saturday showed that players are starting to play smarter football. We made some better plays, especially in the second half and constantly dominated the game in their half of the field. They had to chase us a lot and with plenty of ball across the penalty box, we could easily have scored a couple of more goals with stronger shots.

We will improve because 'WE' want to!
